Biographical Note

Gilbert "Gil" Hutton, born 1917, owned and operated Photo Art Studio in Lafayette, Tippecanoe County, Indiana. He worked as a photographer during World War II in the Philippines. Hutton had pictures and documents about the Japanese surrender. After returning to Indiana, he made a few short films about people and things in Indiana. Gilbert Hutton was married to Thelma E. Hutton, died in 1999, and is buried at Rest Haven Memorial Park in Lafayette, Indiana.

Scope and Contents

This collection includes newspapers, photographs, letters, certificate, and map from Gilbert Hutton in the Pacific front during World War II ranging from 1944 to 1953 regarding military life. Three copies of the "Instrument of Surrender of the Japanese Government and the Japanese Imperial General Headquarters" to the United States Army and Allied Forces in Tokyo, Japan and the Philippines on September 2-3, 1945 are included in the collection. There are also six 16 mm film reels he made or obtained concerning places and events in Indiana after returning there upon the end of the war.
